Seward, Relative to Grants of Lands to Hungarian Exiles, C: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, January 30, 1850 Mr. Houston begged leave to assure the Senator from Mississippi, that if he supposed he (Mr. Houston) had any idea of interfering with any other gentleman upon the subject of bids, he was entirely mistaken, for he would assure him that he had no aspirations which would conflict with those to which the Senator from Mississippi was so justly entitled. (Laughter.) Mr. Houston then proceeded with some general remarks in support of his proposition. Mr. Seward. Mr. President, the resolution which I had the honor to submit in relation to the subject now under consideration may as well be brought distinctly before the Senate, and I therefore will ask the Clerk to read the resolution. The resolution was accordingly read as follows: Resolved, That the conduct of Austria and of Russia, in the war in which those powers have subverted the nationality and the liberties of Hungary, has been...
