Createspace, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the tradition of Ed McBain, a gritty police procedural adapted to a Harvey Chalmers type hometown America. When a strange and troubled young woman stumbles bloodily to her death in a small Upstate New York village full of the usual suspects, Assistant District Attorney Jack Hughes, ordinarily assigned to prosecute routine traffic tickets, finds himself enmeshed in a murder investigation, exposing him to a colorful cast of characters on both sides of the law and a remarkable defense lawyer whose beauty is only exceeded by her ambition, and who is at once much more and much less than she seems. Jack s scuba diving trip to Maine with Sheriff s Investigator Bull Heimlich leads to the simultaneous unraveling of a 30 year old mystery linked in a strange sort of way to the great events of July 1969 when men from the planet Earth first stepped foot on the surface of the moon.
