Emem Bear Goes Potty is a children s picture book. In this book Emem Bear shares her growing up skills. She is sharing her experience of going potty as an exciting achievement. Emem Bear is embracing the event of her toilet training with grace and much readiness. The story is a demonstration of easing the increased anxiety at this sensitive stage of the child s development. She is sharing her experience that may allow the space for the soothing of the many concerns that some children may experience and feel at this stage in their development. Emem Bear s physiological and physical readiness is evident. Many children at this age go through the same experience as Emem Bear is. They will relate to Emem Bear and get encouraged and motivated. This is a significant stage and an important one in the development of a child s growth. Emem Bear is demonstrating just like any normal young child of her experience for the urge of going potty. She is also asking for help when she needs it. Starting...
