

The Education of Historians for the Twenty-First Century

By Thomas Bender, Philip Katz, Colin A. Palmer

University of Illinois Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Education of Historians for the Twenty-First Century, Thomas Bender, Philip Katz, Colin A. Palmer, In 1958, the American Historical Association began a study to determine the status and condition of history education in U.S. colleges and universities. Published in 1962 and addressing such issues as the supply and demand for teachers, student recruitment, and training for advanced degrees, that report set a lasting benchmark against which to judge the study of history thereafter. Now, more than forty years later, the AHA has commissioned a new report. The Education of Historians for the Twenty-first Century documents this important new study's remarkable conclusions. Both the American academy and the study of history have been dramatically transformed since the original study, but doctoral programs in history have barely changed. This report from the AHA explains why and offers concrete, practical recommendations for improving the state of graduate education. "The Education of Historians for the Twenty-first Century" stands as the first investigation of graduate training for historians in more than four decades and the best available study of doctoral education in any major academic discipline. Prepared for the AHA by the Committee on...
