

The River and the Star: The Lost Story of the Great Explorers of the Better World

By David Loye

Benjamin Franklin Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 456 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 1.2in. Biography History Social Science What makes us good or bad Underlying the violence that tears our world apart is there any way to resolve the raging differences that not only drive power mad political leaders and terrorists, but also the global clash of parents, teachers, religions, and all wars Are there somewhere potentially peaceful and unifying foundations for right versus wrong In this first of six books for his Moral Evolution Cycle evolutionary systems scientist David Loye uncovers compelling answers in the lost story of the great explorers of the better world. Vividly recapturing their lives, works, and times, he tells of how against opposition from authoritarian religions, governments, and social systems, over 200 years the founders of modern social science fought to expand the ability of our species to build better lives and a better world for ourselves. Often controversial, at times widely reviled, the explorers range from Immanuel Kant, Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, Herbert Spencer, Emile Durkheim and Sigmund Freud to, more recently, Jean Piaget, Erich Fromm, Lawrence Kohlberg, Carol Gilligan, Jessie Bernard, Jean Baker Miller, and Riane Eisler. Particularly striking is Loye's discovery that...
