THE ENABLERS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Some people bring out the best in others. Some bring out the worst. Some bring out far, far more. Five years ago, the impossible became commonplace. Super-human abilities, always the realm of fantasy burst into reality and shook the world in a way we d never seen before. Initial reactions were disbelief, skeptics abound who rightly claimed that these abilities were simply impossible, that it was some kind of elaborate hoax. This passed quickly though as more and more examples came forward, people who were able to do the impossible for anyone to witness. Confusion reigned, and the first major source of confusion was the strange way in which these abilities manifest themselves. An Enabler has no ability of their own, other than the power to confer a special ability on another, normal person. This being the case, our attention was naturally misdirected, watching the people who were performing amazing feats rather than at the person behind them, the actual source of these abilities. The significance of this rapidly became obvious; any one of us could potentially wield these abilities, if only for a short time. We ve come to see that abilities are initially granted through touch, and maintained through proximity. Think of an Enabler as a radio transmitter, sending energy to the person they ve enabled for as long as they re within range. Once enabled, the two share a connection that they can feel, often described as an almost electrical sensation, and which so far science has had very little success in explaining. As for the abilities themselves, they seem limited only by the imagination and whatever undiscovered law of physics that allows for them...
