Lovejoy is one of the foremost benefactors of American agriculture. His constructive work as a swine breeder, his honesty and ability in public offices which he has accepted in the interest of the common good, his enterprise and contagious enthusiasm as a farmer, his competence and fairness as a judge of pedigreed swine, his simplicity and forcefulness as a speaker and writer upon practical questions relating to animal husbandry and farming, his wise and far-sighted counsel in the management of shows and agricultural organizations, his loyal friendship and good-will for an exceedingly large circle of acquaintances, and his big, warm heart that makes him a welcome and enkindling personality among men, are the outstanding qualities for which he will be long remembered. He has deserved the honor and the success which have come to him. From the...
