Longmans, Green, and Co. Price 5-r. This is a very interesting book, and if Mr. Littlehales will undertake to print some other manuscript prymer as well, he will do a very useful piece of work. We are glad that he has in the present case contented himself with giving a facsimile of one page only, and has transcribed and printed the prymer as a whole. Its interest is far reaching. The student of English life in the middle ages is here brought face to face with the recognised book of prayers used by educated people of the wealthier classes. The student of philology will of course find very much to interest and instruct him; and the liturgical scholar will greet with no small satisfaction the appearance in print of any of the books of prayers used by our forefathers...
