AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Born in a time when ignorance and superstition permeated their culture, Moon Flower was doomed within her isolated Tribe with no name. A Her affliction was misunderstood, casting her into the shadows where she was forced to live until brutal events practiced by a rogue man of the cloth set her on a trail that did not exist, and eventually to a conditional freedom.A At her side rode the handsome Comanche warrior whose life she had saved, her young son and the elusive wolf that became a part of her life. Across the burning wasteland they loved as they traveled in search of the warrior s tribe.A Accepted with open arms, again she saved the life of the God-man with pieces of the sky for eyes. A With his life hanging in the balance her spirit wraps around him to give him strength to live beyond the torture that befell him. Safely within the Comanche arms, Flower finally became , and traveled beside her husband on the war trail as well as into captivity.A Becoming a trusted confidant of the war chief, she enjoyed a rare position from which she could influence the decisions made on behalf of the entire tribe, even to the point of saving them when her belly was swollen with her husband s seed and death appeared riding on a black horse .A Having been forced to cross the border into the hostile land of the home of the Redman , later to become Oklahoma, she discovers that her greatest challenge was as yet still before her. Flower s greatest loss becomes her greatest find when she is blessed four-fold.A Out of the clay banks...
